

PROMOTING PROFESSIONAL PARTNERSHIPS PROGRAM

Whether newcomer, mid-career or experienced in the profession, teachers can rely on each other for support. The Professional Partnership Program encourages and assists mutual collaboration. It endorses relationships based on reciprocity and trust. A program promoting professional partnerships requires commitment and support from the ETSB, ATA, in-school administrators, and teachers.

Partnership potential?

- Multi-age and split class
- Kindergarten
- Adult with secondary
- Secondary with elementary
- New teachers
- Subject specific
- Concentrations
- Brag
- Challenge
- Special needs

Suggested activities that the partners may choose to engage in:

- 📚 Observe partners' classes for specific skill or strategy
- 📚 Team teach
- 📚 Establish meeting times to share experiences and/or practices
